- 5.01 The Employer and the Union are committed to improving the workplace by maintaining a work environment for all its Employees/members which is free from all forms of discrimination, harassment, bullying and workplace violence.

In order to help enhance the dignity and self-worth of all Employees/members, the Employer and the Union are committed to a harassment free workplace. The Employer and the Union will not tolerate, ignore nor condone workplace harassment.

- 5.02 There shall be no discrimination by or on behalf of the Employer or the Union, its members or agents with respect to any Employee because of membership or non-membership in the Union or because of race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, abilities or political affiliation.

All Employees/members are responsible for respecting the dignity and rights of their co-workers.

- 5.03 The Employer and the Union recognize that an Employee should be able to work free from harassment and violence and will cooperate in the achievement of that objective.

Workplace harassment is defined as a single or repeated incident of objectionable or unwelcome conduct, comment, bullying, or action intended to intimidate, offend, degrade or humiliate a particular person or group.

Any discriminatory behaviour at or related to the workplace which denies an individual their dignity and respect or effects their job security by creating an intimidating, offensive, embarrassing, or humiliating work environment is considered to be personal harassment.

Workplace harassment is inappropriate, coercive, intimidating, embarrassing or unwelcome behaviour in the workplace by one person towards another, particularly if the behavior is adversely affecting, either directly or indirectly, the working conditions or work prospects of a staff member. It can be committed verbally, in writing, in writing, including through email or over the internet, graphically, or physically. Examples of workplace harassment include, but are not limited to: gossiping, verbal, or graphic abuse or threats; taunting or other forms of intimidation; unwelcome remarks or jokes about physical attributes, attire, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, family, religion, ethnic or national origin; practical jokes which cause undue embarrassment or humiliation, rumour mongering, unwelcome physical assault.

Violence, whether at a work site or work related, is defined as the threatened, attempted, or actual conduct of a person that causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological injury or harm. It can include a physical or psychological injury or harm. It can include a physical attack or aggression, threatening behaviour, verbal or written threats, domestic violence and/or sexual violence.

Workplace harassment is not when an Employer or supervisor takes reasonable actions while managing and directing workers. Reasonable actions considered to be part of a manager's or supervisor's work functions including changing work assignment, scheduling, assessing, and evaluating work performance, inspecting workplaces, implementing health and safety measures, and taking disciplinary action such as dismissing, suspending, demoting, or reprimanding with just cause. When done reasonably and fairly, these actions should not be considered workplace harassment. Differences of opinion or minor disagreements between co-workers are also not considered workplace harassment.

(a) Domestic Violence

Domestic violence becomes a workplace hazard when it occurs or spills over into the workplace. It may put the targeted worker at risk and may pose a threat to coworkers.

Employers must take reasonable steps to protect affected workers if they are likely to be exposed to domestic violence at the workplace.

(b) Sexual Violence

Sexual violence as a workplace hazard refers to any sexual act, attempt to obtain a sexual act, or other act directed against a worker's sexuality using coercion, by any person regardless of their relationship to the victim, in a workplace or work-related setting.

The Employer and the Union will not tolerate, ignore, or condone workplace harassment and violence and considers both to be serious offences.

- 8.03 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Employees to elect Employees in the bargaining unit as Union Stewards and recognizes the Union Stewards so elected as official worksite representatives of the Union. The Employer agrees that no Union representative shall be unreasonably denied permission to deal with grievance issues providing such request does not disrupt the work of the Employer.
- 8.04 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the name of each steward before the Employer shall be required to recognize them.
- 8.05 The Employer will allow time off for up to three (3) Employees to serve as permanent members of the Union Local Collective Bargaining Committee.

The Employer will hold whole the pay of an Employee so acting for time spent meeting with representatives of the Employer during formal negotiations of the Collective Agreement for the full time that such talks are progressing well and in good faith and shall bill the Union for reimbursement for half (1/2) of the pay of such Employees for hours spent in the collective bargaining activities set out in this Article 8.05 that are performed at a time that would otherwise form part of their assigned work schedule.

- 8.06 Pursuant to Article 8.01, the Employer shall provide Union Local representatives with appropriate office accommodation as required for the purposes of meeting with Employees to investigate grievances or when participating in collective bargaining or Employer/Union committee activities.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 9.01 When an Employee is given a written reprimand, suspension or is terminated the Employee shall be informed in writing within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the event as to the reason(s) for such disciplinary action. A copy of the disciplinary correspondence concerning the matter in question will be forwarded to the Union. The Employee's reply to such complaint, accusation or expression of dissatisfaction shall become part of the Employee's personnel file.
- 9.02 The Employee shall be given notice of any disciplinary interview and shall have the right to have a Union representative present at a disciplinary interview.
- 9.03 The Employer shall have the right to discipline any Employee for just cause. An Employee who considers that they have been unfairly dealt with shall have the right to grieve. If performance issues/concerns are unable to be resolved through regular supervision, discipline will occur in the following order:

Step 1 – Verbal Warning

Step 2 – Written Reprimand

Step 3 – Suspension

At each step the Employee will be given an explanation of when/how the behavior took place, this includes the reason(s) as to why it was unacceptable and afforded the opportunity to discuss and rectify any ongoing issues as they arise. Reasons and actions will be specifically discussed. A plan including timelines and measures to show improvement will be created with input and commitment by the Employee and Employer.

Step 4 – Termination

After all previous steps have been exhausted and improvements have not been demonstrated, termination may be the only recourse. In the event of extreme circumstances, discipline can commence at any level.

- 9.04 An Employee who has been subjected to disciplinary action may, after twelve (12) months from the date the disciplinary action was imposed, request that their personnel file be purged of any record of the disciplinary action. Such request will be granted providing:
- (a) the Employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action, and
  - (b) the disciplinary action is not the subject of an unresolved grievance.
  - (c) In order to assist in the resolution of grievances, an Employee or their Shop Steward with written authority and verbal confirmation of the Employee shall be entitled to review their personnel file when requested in writing with at least 48 hours' notice. An Employee shall have the right to have copies of any material contained in their personnel file.
  - (d) The Employee shall have the right to respond in writing to any document contained therein. Such replies shall become part of the Employee's personnel file.
- 9.05 When an Employee has grieved a disciplinary action and the Employer representative has either allowed the grievance or reduced the disciplinary action levied against the grievor, the personnel file of the grievor will be amended to reflect this action by removing the previous items(s) and replacing them with the changed item(s) provided that this action results in resolution of the grievance. Where the grievor appeals the disciplinary action to arbitration, the award of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the Employee and the personnel file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect that award by removing the previous items(s) and replacing them with the Arbitration Board award.
- 9.06 Demotion shall not be used as a discipline.

- (b) "Grievance" is defined as a complaint regarding the application or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement;
- (c) "Group Grievance" is a grievance initiated by at least one and affecting two (2) or more Employees providing that all Employees party to the Group Grievance are grieving the identical issue and have either signed or authorized the initial grievance form. A Group Grievance will start at Level 2;

- (d) "Policy Grievance" is a difference between the Union and the Employer whereby the one party seeks to enforce an obligation that is alleged to have been accepted by the other party in signing this Collective Agreement and that the obligation, if any, is not the subject of an Employee Grievance or a Group Grievance. A Policy Grievance will start at Level 3;
- (e) "Working Days" means the days on which the Employer's Administration offices are open for the transaction of business.

10.02 Introduction

When a grievance arises, it shall be dealt with in the following manner:

- (a) The Employee(s) should first seek resolution of the alleged grievance through discussion with their immediate supervisor; if that discussion fails to resolve the problem a grievance may then be filed.
- (b) In the event of an Employer concern regarding a possible breach of the Collective Agreement by the Union, the Employer will first seek resolution through discussion with Union leadership. If this discussion fails to resolve the concern, a grievance may be filed at Level 3.
- (c) All grievances shall be submitted in writing clearly stating;
  - (i) the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose, including the Article(s) alleged to be breached.
  - (ii) the remedy or correction requested.
- (d) All replies to grievances from Designated Officers shall be in writing and shall contain the reason(s) for acceptance or denial of the grievance.

10.03 Time Limits

- (a) When the aggrieved Party fails to process a grievance within the time limits specified in this Article, the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned, unless an extension is granted as per 10.03 (d).
- (b) When the Designated Officer receiving the grievance fails to process the grievance within the specified time limits, the aggrieved Party shall automatically be eligible to advance the grievance to the next level.
- (c) A grievance or a reply shall be dated the date it was delivered.
- (d) The time limits between levels or the time limits to initially file a grievance may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union.

10.04 Grievance Procedure Structure

Level 1

- (a) A grievor must submit their grievance in writing to their immediate supervisor at Level 1 within ten (10) working days of the date they had the first reasonable opportunity of knowing that an infraction of the Collective Agreement had allegedly occurred;
- (b) The immediate supervisor shall meet with those concerned within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance and shall submit a reply to the grievance within three (3) working days of this meeting.

Level 2

- (a) If a settlement of the grievance is not reached at Level 1, the Union may forward same to the Manager or Director as appropriate at Level 2 within five (5) working days of the receipt of the response at Level 1, along with rationale for proceeding to Level 2.
- (b) The Manager or Director as appropriate at Level 2 shall meet with those concerned within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance and shall submit a reply to the Union within five (5) working days of this meeting.

Level 3

- (a) If a settlement of the grievance is not reached at Level 2, it may be forwarded to the Designated Director responsible for Labour Relations (Level 3) providing that the same conditions in Level 2 are met;
- (b) The Designated Director responsible for Labour Relations (Level 3) shall meet the same conditions set for the consideration of and the response to the grievance as out in Level 2;
- (c) A decision on a grievance at Level 3 regarding the termination of a Probationary Employee shall be final and binding.

Level 4 - Mediation

The Employer and the Union agree to consider "Grievance Mediation" as an alternative disputes resolution process for those issues that may be referred to an Arbitration hearing. Grievance Mediation would only be entered into by mutual consent and the parties agree that, unless mutually agreed, the results of such mediation are not binding; nor do they preclude continuing with the Arbitration process.

Level 5 - Arbitration:

- (a) If a settlement is not reached at Level 3 and the grievance is one eligible for consideration by an Arbitration Board, it may be so submitted providing that:
  - (i) the Union notifies the Employer of its intent to submit this grievance to Level 5, or Level 4 as mutually agreed, of the Grievance Procedure within ten (10) working days of receipt by the Union of the written decision of the Director responsible for Labour Relations at Level 3 and this shall constitute a preliminary notice, and
  - (ii) within twenty (20) days of the preliminary notice referred to in sub-paragraphs i) above, the Union shall formally advise the Employer of its intent to proceed to arbitration, such notice shall include the name and address of the Union's nominee to the Arbitration Board;
- (b) The Employer shall reply to the Union's formal notice within fifteen (15) working days of its delivery; and such reply shall include the name and address of the Employer's nominee to the Arbitration Board;
- (c) The respective nominees shall jointly appoint a mutually acceptable chairperson within twenty (20) working days of the delivery to the Union of the Employer's response;
- (d) If the appointed members fail to agree on a mutually acceptable Chairperson within the prescribed time limit, a Chairperson shall be appointed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Code;
- (e) The Employer and the Union may by mutual agreement appoint a single arbitrator who shall constitute the Arbitration Board. Both parties further agree that, in the interest of timely resolution with reduced cost to both parties, wherever possible, a single arbitrator will be appointed. This appointment will be made, by mutual agreement, within fourteen (14) days of the initial submission to arbitration;
- (f) The Employer and the Union shall each bear the total costs of its appointee to the Arbitration Board and shall share equally the total costs of the Chairperson of the Board;
- (g) The Employer shall grant the aggrieved Employee leave of absence with pay for the purpose of attending the Board hearing of their grievance;
- (h) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to attend the Board hearing for witnesses who are Employees of the Employer and who are acting on behalf of the grievor;
- (i) The expenses of necessary witnesses called by the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.

10.05 Powers of The Arbitration Board

- (a) The Arbitration Board shall neither add to, detract from, nor modify the language of the Collective Agreement;
- (b) The Board shall expressly confine itself in its award to the precise issue submitted to the Board and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted to it;
- (c) Where disciplinary action against an Employee is involved, the Arbitration Board may vary the penalty as the Board considers fair and reasonable.

10.06 Arbitration Board Procedures

- (a) Upon receipt of the grievance the Chairperson shall, in consultation with the Union and the Employer, expeditiously convene a Board;
- (b) Where a grievance is heard by a three (3) member Board, the decision of the majority of the members is the award of the Board, but if there is no majority, a decision of the Chairperson governs and is the award of the Arbitration Board;
- (c) The Chairperson shall submit a written report on the findings and the decision of the Board to the Employer and the Union within sixty (60) days of completing the hearing.

10.07 Decision of The Board

The decision of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union and on all Employees affected by the Collective Agreement.

10.08 Variance from Normal Grievance Procedure

- (a) A grievance may be initially advanced beyond Level 1 to Level(s) 2 or 3 by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union;
- (b) A grievance arising from the suspension or dismissal of an Employee shall be presented initially at Level 3 of the Grievance Procedure except that:
  - (i) in a case of an Employee who has successfully completed a probationary period, the Employer will meet with those concerned and then may agree with the Union in writing that the grievance may be presented at Level 4 or 5; and;
  - (ii) in a case of a probationary Employee, the Employer and the Union may mutually agree in writing that the grievance shall be presented at Level 1 or 2;
- (c) When it is decided that a grievance will be heard initially at Level 3, a submission to the Designated Officer at Level 3 must be made by the Union within five (5) working days of receipt of the written notification notifying of suspension or dismissal;

The cost of immunization will be paid by the Employer for all full-time, part-time and temporary Employees and equally shared between the Employer and casual Employees. 28.05 The work of Wood's Homes requires an understanding of the nature of youth who have experienced severe trauma. This nature may show itself in disruptive, aggressive and/or violent verbal and physical behavior.

The Employer takes its responsibility in promoting a safe, violence-free workplace very seriously. The Employer shall provide mandatory training in procedures for handling potentially violent situations to all staff.

For the purpose of this Article, workplace aggression and violence means any incident(s) considered to be an act of violence as per the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Act.

All Employees, Union and management will adhere to safe work practices, will share responsibility to create and maintain a safe work environment and follow safety rules, routines and procedures.

The parties agree that staff working residential or other high-risk environments shall become a standing agenda item for discussion at each labour management meeting in order to mitigate risk.

(b) Employees who are given written notice of at least one (1) month of their need for re-certification who then fail to sign up in time and therefore must take full re-certification, will receive pay compensation in accordance with the time required for re-certification, not full certification.

Any additional required days/hours will be unpaid leave. In the event the Employee does sign up for re-certification and the re-certification course/program is cancelled or the Employee has a reasonable explanation for not completing the re-certification (i.e. request from Employer to withdraw, illness, bereavement), the Employee will receive pay compensation for the full certification.
